

Page 1 - FastAPI Overview

FastAPI is a Python framework for building APIs.

It supports type hints and automatic API documentation.

Page 2 - Validation

Pydantic is used for request and response validation.

FastAPI can validate incoming JSON data using Pydantic models.

Page 3 - Docker and Database

Docker can package a FastAPI application into a container.

PostgreSQL can be used to store application data.